NOTICE is hereby given that the Standard Terms and Conditions governing the supply of electricity by ETSA Power Pty Ltd (ACN 082 928 701) have been amended as set out below and are published in accordance with section 36(2) of the South Australian Electricity Act 1996.

These amendments to the standard Terms and Conditions will come into force on 1 July 1999 and when in force will be contractually binding on ETSA Power Pty Ltd and the class of customers to whom these terms and conditions are expressed to apply.

SCHEDULE

1. Amend clause 2 by amending the definition of 'Transition Tariff' so as to read as follows:

'Transition Tariff' means in the case of every Continuing Contestable Customer (other than a Nominated Customer) whichever is the applicable of:

- (a) the published tariff which is on the same terms and conditions as the tariff that applied to you immediately before you became a contestable customer;
 - (b) any derivation of the tariff referred to in (a) applied to you as a result of a special load characteristic or other determinant adopted by us for that purpose payable by you immediately before you became a contestable customer; or
 - (c) the rate payable by you under a Pre-Market Agreement immediately before becoming a contestable customer;
- ('Pre-Transition Tariff') subject to the following conditions:
- (d) the Transition Tariff equals your Pre-Transition Tariff plus 1.8 per cent;
 - (e) the Transition Tariff commences from 1 July 1999 and ceases at midnight 30 June 2000;
 - (f) the Transition Tariff ceases to apply to you once you enter into another agreement with us (other than a Pre-Market Agreement) or an agreement with another licensed retailer for the sale of electricity no matter what the terms or period of that agreement;
 - (g) if, at the date you became a contestable customer, you represented an aggregated point of connection, the Transition Tariff shall thereafter be calculated as if the Pre-Transition Tariff was calculated as if (a) above was applicable to you;
 - (h) a change to your Pre-Transition Tariff which comes into operation on or after the date you became a contestable customer will not change the Transition Tariff applicable to you;
 - (i) if a Pre-Transition Tariff falls within (b) or (c) above, that any conditions or circumstances attaching to that rate, in lieu of the rate that would otherwise be payable under (a), are maintained failing which the Transition Tariff shall thereafter be calculated as if the Pre-Transition Tariff was calculated as if (a) above was applicable to you;
 - (j) we will implement the policy of the State of South Australia with respect to the provision of a further Transition Tariff for the period 1 July 2000 until 30 June 2001 but no promise or assurance is provided that there will be any Transition Tariff beyond the expiration of that further period.

In the case of a Nominated Customer 'Transition Tariff' means a rate nominated from time to time (but not later than 1 September 1999) in writing by us to you including any conditions or circumstances in which the same shall not be applicable and any rate which applies in the event that those conditions or circumstances do not apply.'

2. Amend clause 2 by adding:

'Nominated Customer' means any Continuing Contestable Customer which we have nominated from time to time (but not later than 1 September 1999) for the purposes of these conditions on the basis that the circumstances of the particular Continuing Contestable Customer require, in our reasonably held view, the application of an alternative form of tariff'.
