PURSUANT to section 65 (6) of the Petroleum Act 2000 (the Act) and Delegation dated 25 September 2000, Gazetted 28 September 2000, page 2289, notice is hereby given that an application for the grant of a pipeline licence has been received from GasNet Australia (Operations) Pty Ltd and DEI South Australia Holdings Pty Ltd.

B. A. GOLDSTEIN, Director Petroleum, Office of Minerals and Energy Resources,
Delegate of the Minister for Mineral Resources Development

General Description of Application

The proposed pipeline will commence at Port Campbell in Victoria and tie-in to the existing gas transmission network north of Adelaide. The South Australian section commences at a point on the South Australia-Victoria border between Windmill Swamp Road and Leech Road. From this point it travels north-west, crossing the Riddoch Highway south of Tarpeena, then changing to a northerly direction, passing to the east of Kalangadoo and west of Penola. The pipeline then turns towards the north-west as it passes to the west of Coonawarra, Keith, Tintinara and Coonalpyn. The pipeline passes under the Murray River approximately 1 km south of Wellington, then continues in a north-westerly direction until it turns northerly to the west of Murray Bridge and heads in a northerly direction until it reaches a position to the west of Mt Pleasant, where it turns north-westerly and passes to the north-east of Mt Pleasant and Williamstown until it passes Gawler. From here it will either:

- continue to the north-west to tie-in to the Wasleys Compressor Station. (This proposed route will cover approximately 450 km in South Australia); or
- head due west across the Adelaide Plains until it turns down the western side of Two Wells and turns south-easterly to wind its way to cross Port Wakefield Road and into the Elizabeth Meter Station located adjacent to Mill Road. (This proposed route will cover approximately 480 km in South Australia).

F. Where the contents of a document (or page thereof) are less than one A4 page in length the fee allowed therefore is to be at the discretion of the taxing officer.

G. For drawing any bill of costs (not including a short form bill of costs) the taxing officer may allow an additional 50 per cent on all drawing fees.

H. Such allowance for kilometreage by motor vehicle or other conveyance will be made as the taxing officer shall consider reasonable.

I. Where the Court orders a party, or a party or person is otherwise required, to tax costs both as between party and party and solicitor and client, Form 37 of the Supreme Court Rules shall be modified by the applicant so as to provide for the inclusion of both party and party and solicitor and client costs and the respondent's respective responses thereto.

The maximum rate is appropriate for documents such as pleadings, particulars, advices and opinions and for the more complicated medical and expert reports. A middle range figure will be appropriate for standard expert reports, lists of documents and medical reports. The lower rate will apply to appearances, ordinary correspondence, special damages, vouchers and the like. In cases when a large volume of documents is required to be perused, an hourly rate may be allowed by the taxing officer in lieu of a perusal fee.

K. When an instructing solicitor is in Court the lower rate should be allowed if the solicitor is merely assisting counsel by being present, but the high rate should be allowed if the solicitor is more actively involved, eg by proofing witnesses, preparing indices, etc.

L. The costs allowed in this scale do not include the Goods and Services Tax (GST).

The GST should not be included in a claim for costs in a party/party Bill of Costs if the receiving party is able to recover the GST as an input tax credit. Where the receiving party is able to obtain an input tax credit for a proportion of the GST only, only that portion which is eligible for credit should be claimed in the party/party bill.

Where there is a dispute as to whether the GST is properly claimed in the party/party Bill of Costs, the receiving party must provide a certificate signed by the solicitors or the auditors of the receiving party as to the extent of any input tax credit available to the receiving party.

GIVEN under our hands and the Seal of the Supreme Court of South Australia this 25th day of February 2002.
