COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA

PETROLEUM (SUBMERGED LANDS) ACT 1967

Notice of Invitation of Applications for Exploration Permits

I, CYRIL DAVID COCKSHELL, the Delegate of the Designated Authority in respect of the adjacent area in respect of South Australia, on behalf of the Commonwealth-South Australia Offshore Petroleum Joint Authority, acting pursuant to delegated powers dated 14 July 2002, Gazetted 22 August 2002, page 3127 and pursuant to section 20 (1) of the Petroleum (Submerged Lands) Act 1967, of the Commonwealth of Australia, hereby invite applications for the grant of an exploration permit in respect of each of the following areas as scheduled below:

SCHEDULE

(The references hereunder are to the names of the map sheets of the 1:1 000 000 series and to the numbers of graticular sections shown thereon).

The Commonwealth/State/Territory jurisdictional boundary in coastal waters is determined by the Australian Maritime Boundaries Information System Dataset of 2000, released in January 2001 by the Australian Surveying and Land Information Group (now Geoscience Australia National Mapping Division).

Section 5AAA of the Petroleum (Submerged Lands) Act 1967 provides that, where a change to the baseline of Australia's territorial sea would impact on the boundary of an existing petroleum title (in Commonwealth or State or Territory waters), there is in fact no such impact. The Commonwealth, State or Territory Act (as the case may be) under which the title has been granted, continues to apply to the title and the whole title area for as long as the title remains in force. Therefore, this Instrument does not apply to any such area that is already under title.

REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

REPORT RELATING TO DETERMINATION NO. 2 OF 2003

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Section 4 (1) (c) of the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990, confers jurisdiction on the Remuneration Tribunal to determine from time to time electorate allowances and other allowances and expenses for Members of Parliament.
- 1.2 On 15 January 2003, the Tribunal wrote to all Members of Parliament and major political parties advising that the Tribunal would conduct a review of those allowances and expenses, having regard to existing electoral boundaries, and seeking submissions on any matter relevant to such a review, including evidence of increased costs and expenses incurred for the allowances.
- 1.3 On 28 January 2003, the following was published in The Advertiser newspaper:

REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

Review of Electorate and Other Allowances

Section 4 (1) (c) of the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990, confers jurisdiction on the Remuneration Tribunal to determine from time to time electorate allowances and other allowances and expenses for Members of Parliament.

Electorate allowances compensate members of Parliament for the expenses they necessarily incur in the performance of their duties.

Other allowances referred to include:

- Expense Allowances of Ministers of the Crown;
- Expense Allowances of Officers of Parliament;
- Country Member's Accommodation Allowance; and
- Travelling and Accommodation Allowances.

It should be noted that the Remuneration Tribunal does not set salaries for Members of Parliament.

Interested persons, organisations and associations are invited to submit in writing any views they consider should be taken into account in the above reviews.

The closing date is Tuesday, 11 February 2003, and submissions should be forwarded to:

The Secretary
Remuneration Tribunal
G.P.O. Box 1651
Adelaide, S.A. 5001

Or alternatively submissions can be forwarded via the Tribunal's website: www.remtribunal.sa.gov.au.

Telephone: (08) 8226 4001
Facsimile: (08) 8226 4174

- 1.4 The Tribunal received a number of requests from Members for an extension of time to respond to the Tribunal's request for submissions in relation to the review. At its meeting on 24 February 2003, the Tribunal granted those Members an extension until Wednesday, 12 March 2003.
- 1.5 The Tribunal heard oral submissions from Members of Parliament on 24 February 2003 and 18 March 2003.
- 1.6 Written and/or oral submissions were received from:
 - 1.6.1 the Hon. John Rau who sought the provision of motor vehicles to the Members of the South Australian Parliament under an arrangement similar to that of Federal Parliament. Mr Rau considered it quiet anomalous that vehicles were not provided when compared with what occurs in other states and to Public Servants and other Private Sector employees of similar seniority. Mr Rau also requested that the Global Allowance be increased to allow for stretched office resources as a result of additional staff allocations;

- 1.6.2 the Hon. Bob Such who sought a specific allocation of a motor vehicle to Members of Parliament in return for appropriate adjustments to Member's electorate allowances. He claimed 'the issue has dragged on for a long time and needs to be resolved' and that 'many MPs from various political parties have approached me on this issue and I have agreed, along with others to raise the matter with you';
- 1.6.3 the Hon. Liz Penfold who provided details of the diverse activities within her electorate of Flinders and the expenditure involved in servicing that electorate including the cost of staff wages and overheads;
- 1.6.4 the Hon. Martin Hamilton-Smith who sought an increase in electorate allowances given the increasing costs associated with communicating on matters of concern with constituents through quarterly news bulletins and letters to each household in the electorate;
- 1.6.5 the Hon. Mark Brindal who sought an increase in electorate allowances to meet the myriad of costs associated with running an electorate office and the ability to access salary sacrifice arrangements similar to those offered to public servants;
- 1.6.6 the Hon. Vicki Chapman who detailed activities undertaken in her electorate and expenses incurred including those incurred in visiting properties etc. outside her electorate but owned by people or businesses inside her electorate;
- 1.6.7 the Hon. Wayne Matthew who sought clarification of matters related to allowances determined by the Tribunal and supplied a detailed summary of expenses incurred in the 2000-2001 and 2001-2002 years above that provided for in the electorate allowance;
- 1.6.8 the Hon. Angus Redford and the Hon. Terry Stephens who drew the Tribunal's attention to the history of the electorate allowance and, whilst not commenting on the adequacy of the current amounts, advised the Tribunal that at least nine Members of the Legislative Council had indicated they would record expenditure for a 12 month period to assist the Tribunal in fixing appropriate rates; and
- 1.6.9 members of the public. Both of the two submissions received stated that Members of Parliament should be subject to normal Taxation rules and receive re-imbursment, upon presentation of proof of purchase, only for costs actually incurred.

2. Electorate Allowances

- 2.1 Electorate allowances are provided to compensate Members of Parliament for the expenses they necessarily incur in the performance of their duties. A significant component of the allowance covers the cost of running a motor vehicle in the servicing of electorates. Other items of expense may include accommodation and travelling expenses (not otherwise covered), donations, subscriptions, telephone, printing, stationery and postage, without attempting to give a fully exhaustive list.
- 2.2 These allowances were last increased from 1 February 2001, having regard to movement in the Consumer Price Index for the period from July 1999 to December 2000.
- 2.3 Submissions from Members of Parliament, in addition to seeking increased electorate allowances, also raised two significant issues for the Tribunal to consider as part of its review. These issues were the ability for Members of Parliament to access salary sacrifice arrangements and the allocation of motor vehicles.

2.4 Whilst the Tribunal believed it did not have the jurisdiction under the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990, to make determinations in relation to these matters it sought legal advice from the Crown Solicitor's Office on these issues.

2.4.1 Salary Sacrifice Arrangements

In relation to salary sacrifice arrangements, the Crown Solicitor has confirmed that the Tribunal does not have jurisdiction to make a determination to provide for salary sacrifice arrangements. The Tribunal is advised that any salary sacrifice arrangement for Members of Parliament would need to be by variation to the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990, by Parliament as it is an act of Parliament that determines the salaries of Members of Parliament.

2.4.2 Allocation of Motor Vehicles

A number of Members of Parliament made submissions for the allocation of motor vehicles to South Australian Members of Parliament on the basis that all other States had arrangements in this regard.

The Tribunal is informed that Federal Members along with Members in Victoria, Western Australia and the Northern Territory have access to motor vehicles under various arrangements. However Members in New South Wales, Queensland and some Members in Tasmania do not have vehicles provided.

The Crown Solicitor has confirmed that, under the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990, the Tribunal does not have the power to determine that motor vehicles be supplied to Members of Parliament as part of their salary and allowances. Having regard to section 6A of the Act, both Parliament and the Crown have the power to provide Members of Parliament with motor vehicles. Indeed that power has been exercised with the provision of a motor vehicle to one Member of Parliament in lieu of a chauffeur driven vehicle.

As a significant component of the Electorate Allowance covers the cost of running a vehicle in the servicing of electorates, if vehicles are provided to Members of Parliament the Tribunal would need to consider a downward adjustment of the electorate allowance.

2.5 Whilst the Tribunal received various other submissions from Members in relation to electorate allowances, only limited evidence was given to the Tribunal as to the measure of increase (if any) in any of those components specifically, since the date of the last Determination.

2.6 The Tribunal has on a number of occasions (in 1969, 1975 and 1994) endeavoured to gain more detailed information from Members of Parliament on actual expenses incurred in servicing electorates. It has therefore been a matter of some concern that on each of these occasions the Tribunal has received only limited information.

2.7 The Tribunal however is encouraged from submissions heard in this review that at least nine Members of the Legislative Council have indicated they would complete a survey of expenditure if the Tribunal was to conduct a further full review of allowances and expenses payable.

2.8 Accordingly, whilst the Tribunal is at this stage only prepared to accept that the movement in the Consumer Price Index justifies a minimal adjustment to the electorate allowances and has therefore determined new electorate allowances as set out in the Determination, it has decided to conduct an extensive review of electorate allowances payable to Members of Parliament by way of a survey in the near future.

2.9 This survey will be conducted for the period 1 July 2003 to 30 June 2004 and each Member of Parliament will be sent in advance a copy of information which the Tribunal will be requesting. Members will be reminded that electorate allowances are payable for personal expenses in servicing the constituents in the electorate in which they serve as distinct from those occurred in campaigning or securing support for re-election.

3. Expense Allowances of Ministers of the Crown and Officers of Parliament

3.1 These allowances are to compensate Ministers of the Crown and Officers of Parliament for the extraordinary expenses incurred when performing the duties of these offices and were last increased from 1 February 2001.

3.2 The Tribunal received no submissions to increase these allowances and had no evidence put before it as to the measure of increase (if any) in costs and expenses relating to any of those components specifically, since the date of the last Determination. The Tribunal therefore has determined not to increase these allowances at this time.

3.3 The Tribunal will be writing to Ministers of the Crown and Officers of Parliament receiving these allowances requesting additional information in order to be satisfied that any increase to these allowances are justified.

4. Country Members' Accommodation Allowance

4.1 This allowance was last increased from $140 to $158 per night from 1 July 2000 and is payable to members of Parliament whose usual place of residence is more than 75 km by road from the General Post Office at Adelaide and who are required to stay in Adelaide overnight in order to attend to parliamentary duties and to also meet their duties to be actively involved in community affairs and represent and assist constituents in dealings with governmental and other public agencies and authorities.

4.2 The maximum amount payable for a 12 month period is $21 330 and this amount was effective from 1 July 2000.

4.3 The Tribunal received submissions from two Members detailing benefits potentially gained by Country Members who utilise this allowance to subsidise the purchase of a second residence in Adelaide.

4.4 Whilst the Tribunal notes these submissions (along with similar submissions received in previous years), and is aware of growing public expectations that persons in public office do not benefit from that position, it is not prepared to alter the arrangements which have been in place for over 30 years without full consideration. In its determination in 1994, the then Tribunal stated:

'In addition, the Tribunal is aware that some members have deliberately chosen to acquire a second residence, either by way of house, flat, unit, etc. and it is very difficult to determine the actual expenses in these circumstances.

As a matter of policy, the Tribunal does not wish to disadvantage such members for the exercise of this choice and has therefore decided to provide an allowance of a flat amount per overnight stay in Adelaide irrespective of the form of accommodation used. Such payment should not exceed the maximum prescribed in the Determination for each 12 month period and should only apply to those members who are eligible to receive the allowance by virtue of the fact that:

- (i) the Member remains in Adelaide overnight; and
- (ii) the Member's usual place of residence is more than 75 km by road from the G.P.O. Adelaide.'

4.5 The Tribunal is aware that the Commonwealth Remuneration Tribunal has determined an allowance of one-third of the commercial rate for those Members who do not avail themselves of commercial accommodation.

4.6 The Tribunal received no submissions to increase this allowance and had no evidence put before it as to the measure of increase (if any) in costs and expenses relating to overnight accommodation in Adelaide.

4.7 Accordingly, the Tribunal has decided to review this policy and will consider determining a rate for those not using commercial accommodation at a figure considerably less than that determined for those using commercial accommodation. The Tribunal will also consider replacing the overnight allowance for commercial accommodation with reimbursement of actual costs incurred up to a maximum overnight rate and annual ceiling. As part of the Tribunal's review of this allowance it will be writing to country Members in the near future inviting submissions on the matter.

- 4.8 Having regard to the above, the Tribunal has determined not to increase the Country Member's Accommodation Allowance at this time.

5. Travelling and Accommodation Allowances of Ministers and the Leader and Deputy Leader of the Opposition

- 5.1 These allowances are payable when expenditure is incurred when travelling on official business. These rates were last increased from 1 April 2002.
- 5.2 The Tribunal received no submissions to increase these allowances and had no evidence put before it as to the measure of increase (if any) in costs and expenses relating to any of those components specifically, since the date of the last Determination. The Tribunal therefore has determined not to increase these allowances at this time.
- 5.3 The Tribunal has decided to review the basis of this allowance and will consider determining a rate for those not using commercial accommodation at a figure considerably less than that determined for those using commercial accommodation. The Tribunal will also consider replacing the overnight allowance for commercial accommodation with reimbursement of actual costs incurred up to a maximum overnight rate. As part of the Tribunal's review of this allowance it will be writing to Ministers of the Crown and the Leader and Deputy Leader of the Opposition in the near future inviting submissions on the matter.

- 5.4 Having regard to the above, the Tribunal has determined not to increase the Travelling and Accommodation Allowances at this time.

6. Date of Operation

- 6.1 The Tribunal has decided that the provisions of this Determination, which supersede those of all preceding Determinations, with the exception of Clause 5 which shall continue to operate from 1 July 2000, shall operate from 5 May 2003.
