Definitions

Section 8(8) of the Intervention Orders Prevention of Abuse Act 2009 defines 'domestic abuse' to be:

- (8) If the act of abuse is committed by a Respondent against a person with whom the Respondent is or was formerly in a relationship, it is referred to in this Act as an act of domestic abuse; and for that purpose, two persons are in a relationship if—
- (a) they are married to each other; or
 - (b) they are domestic partners; or
 - (c) they are in some other form of intimate personal relationship in which their lives are interrelated and the actions of one affects the other; or
 - (d) one is the child, stepchild or grandchild, or is under the guardianship, of the other (regardless of age); or
 - (e) one is a child, stepchild or grandchild, or is under the guardianship, of a person who is or was formerly in a relationship with the other under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) (regardless of age); or
 - (f) one is a child and the other is a person who acts in loco parentis in relation to the child; or
 - (g) one is a child who normally or regularly resides or stays with the other; or
 - (h) they are brothers or sisters or brother and sister; or
 - (i) they are otherwise related to each other by or through blood, marriage, a domestic partnership or adoption; or
 - (j) they are related according to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander kinship rules or are both members of some other culturally recognised family group; or
 - (k) one is the carer (within the meaning of the Carers Recognition Act 2005) of the other.

'Domestic partners' is defined in sections 11 and 11A of the Family Relationships Act 1975, which read as follows:

Part 3—Domestic partners

11—Interpretation

In this Part—

'Close personal relationship' means the relationship between two adult persons (whether or not related by family and irrespective of their sex or gender identity) who live together as a couple on a genuine domestic basis, but does not include—

- (a) the relationship between a legally married couple; or
- (b) a relationship where one of the persons provides the other with domestic support or personal care (or both) for fee or reward, or on behalf of some other person or an organisation of whatever kind.

Note—

Two persons may live together as a couple on a genuine domestic basis whether or not a sexual relationship exists, or has ever existed, between them.

'Registered relationship' means a relationship that is registered under the Relationships Register Act 2016, and includes a corresponding law registered relationship under that Act.

11A—Domestic partners

A person is, on a certain date, the domestic partner of another if—

- (a) the person is, on that date, in a registered relationship with the other; or
- (b) the person is, on that date, living with the other in a close personal relationship and—
 - (i) the person—
 - (A) has so lived with the other continuously for the period of 3 years immediately preceding that date; or
 - (B) has during the period of 4 years immediately preceding that date so lived with the other for periods aggregating not less than 3 years; or
 - (ii) a child, of whom the two persons are the parents, has been born (whether or not the child is still living at that date).

Remarks

- 1. default selected if Intervention Order
The Court having been satisfied that it is reasonable to suspect that the Respondent will, without intervention commit an act of abuse against the protected person[s] and the issuing of the order is appropriate in the circumstances.
- 2. default selected if Problem Gambling Protection Order
The Court having been satisfied that a Final Intervention Order has been made against the Respondent and there is reasonable apprehension of harm to family members because of problem gambling and the issuing of this order is appropriate in the circumstances.
- 3. default selected if Tenancy Order
The Court having been satisfied that an Intervention Order has been made against the Respondent and the order prohibits the Respondent from being on premises at which a protected person resides, and the Respondent and protected person previously reside together on the premises and the premises are Respondent to a Tenancy Agreement to which the Respondent is a party.
- 4. mandatory if conditions 5 or 6 deselected below
The Court having been satisfied that the Respondent has never been found guilty of violent or intimidatory conduct and needs to have a firearm for purposes related to earning a livelihood.
- 5. mandatory if Order made under section 68R of the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth)
The Court has made an Intervention Order being a Family Violence Order within the meaning of section 4(1) of the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth).
- 6. mandatory if order made under section 68R of the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth)
In making the orders under section 68R of the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth), the Court has had regard to the purposes of Division 11 of that Act as stated in section 68N of that Act and to whether spending time with both parents is in the best interests of the child[ren] described below.
- 7. mandatory if Order made under section 68R of the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth)
The Court is satisfied that it is appropriate to [vary/discharge/suspend] the [order/injunction] made under the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth) described below because a person has been exposed, or is likely to be exposed, to family violence as a result of the operation of that order or injunction.
- 8. mandatory if Order made under section 68R of the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth)
In making an order to revive, vary, discharge or suspend a Parenting Order or Recovery Order as mentioned in section 68R(1)(a) or section 68R(1)(b), the Court is satisfied it has before it material that was not before the Court that made the [order/injunction] under the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth).
