MARINE PARKS ACT 2007

Temporary Prohibition Notice to Protect Giant Australian Cuttlefish—Upper Spencer Gulf Marine Park

Notice is hereby given pursuant to Section 18(2) of the Marine Parks Act 2007, that it is prohibited for any member of the public to enter, remain in, or undertake any activity (including in-water recreational activities, swimming, snorkelling, diving and vessel anchoring) in the designated zone at Stony Point, near Port Bonython in Upper Spencer Gulf Marine Park, with the exception of innocent passage by marine vessels.

The designated zone is from Stony Point to Black Point at the location marked in the attached Schedule.

This prohibition operates for a period of 90 days from 1 July 2026, to protect the Giant Australian Cuttlefish while numbers are low.

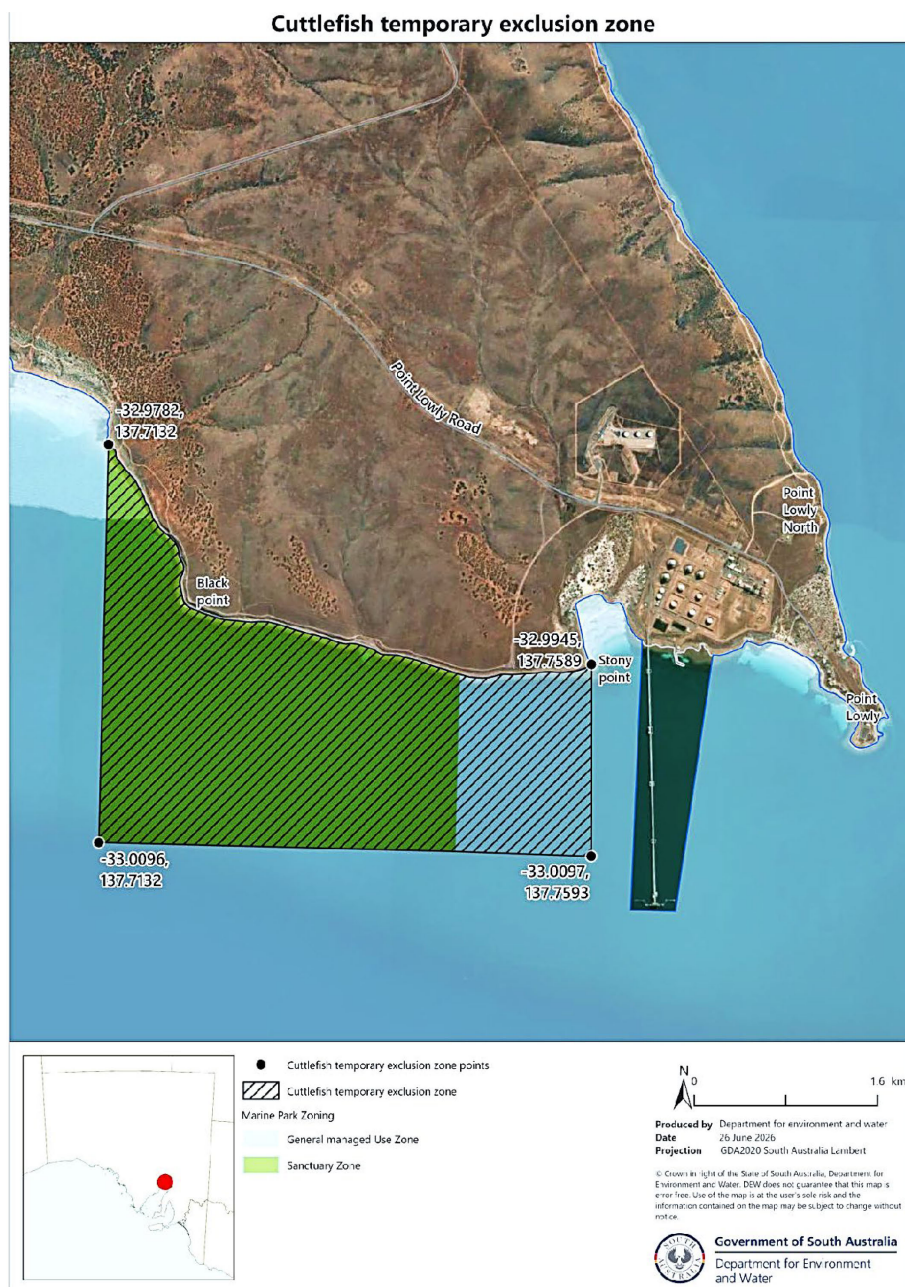

The purpose of the prohibition is to minimise any disturbance on breeding cuttlefish, and to help protect cuttlefish eggs and hatchlings.

Failure to comply with this notice may result in liability for criminal prosecution with a maximum penalty of $100,000 or two years' imprisonment.
