TAKE notice that, pursuant to section 59 of the Fisheries Act 1982, a person of a class listed in Schedule 1 (the 'exemption holders'), are exempt from sections 34 and 44 of the Fisheries Act 1982, the Fisheries (Scheme of Management—Abalone Fisheries) Regulations 1991, and clause 1 of Schedule 6 of the Fisheries (General) Regulations 2000, insofar as they may undertake the fishing activity described in Schedule 2 without a fishery licence (the 'exempted activity'), subject to the conditions in Schedule 3, from 31 May 2005 to 10 June 2005, unless varied or revoked earlier.

SCHEDULE 1

All persons in the following classes of persons are all exemption holders:

1. Holders of a Central Zone Abalone Fishery Licence during the period to which the exemption applies (31 May 2005 to 10 June 2005).
2. Persons registered and endorsed on a Central Zone Abalone Fishery Licence as a registered master, during the period to which the exemption applies (31 May 2005 to 10 June 2005).

SCHEDULE 2

Fishing activity consisting of the taking of greenlip abalone, or acts preparatory to or involved in the taking of greenlip abalone, including the taking of undersized greenlip abalone, in the waters adjacent to South Australia in the area bounded on the west by a line following the meridian 136°30'E, bounded on the east by a line following the meridian 137°30'E and bounded on the south by a line following the latitude 34°S.

SCHEDULE 3

1. The exempted activity may only be undertaken for the purposes of the experimental fishing project being conducted by SARDI Aquatic Sciences.
2. The exemption holders must not harvest greenlip abalone with a shell length less than 120 mm.
3. The exemption holders must land all greenlip abalone in the shell unless specifically directed by the Chief Scientist of SARDI Aquatic Sciences or his nominated delegate to do otherwise.
4. The exemption holders may only undertake the exempted activity at the direction of the Chief Scientist of SARDI Aquatic Sciences or his nominated delegate.

5. Prior to each day's fishing, the exemption holders must report in person to the Chief Scientist of SARDI Aquatic Sciences or his nominated delegate in Cowell, where the following will be provided:

- (a) a list of the fishing blocks required to be fished by that exemption holder on that day; and
- (b) sufficient bags, tags and data sheets that must be used and completed for the purpose of recording the scientific information that is to be collected.

6. The exemption holders must not dive outside the fishing blocks designated in accordance with condition 6 (a) above for each day's fishing.

7. The exemption holders may only dive for a maximum of one hour in each of the fishing blocks designated for each day's fishing.

8. At the conclusion of each day's fishing, the exemption holders must report in person to the Chief Scientist of SARDI Aquatic Sciences or his nominated delegate in Cowell to provide completed catch and effort forms in relation to each fishing block fished and any other data, shells or abalone as requested by SARDI Aquatic Sciences.

9. While engaged in the exempted activity, the exemption holders must carry or have about or near their person a copy of this notice. Such notice must be produced to a PIRSA Fisheries compliance officer upon request.

10. The exemption holders must not contravene or fail to comply with the Fisheries Act 1982, or any regulations made under that Act, except where specifically exempted by this notice.

11. The exemption holders may only undertake the exempted activity using a fishing boat registered on a Central Zone Abalone Fishery Licence.

12. The exemption holders must notify PIRSA Fishwatch on 1800 065 522 each day prior to conducting the exempted activity and provide a daily report.

13. The exemption holders must complete a CDR form at the completion of each day's fishing activity and within 50 m of the point of landing.

Dated 26 May 2005.

W. ZACHARIN, Director of Fisheries
