REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

REPORT RELATING TO DETERMINATION NO. 5 OF 2006

1. Electorate Allowances for Members

The Electoral Districts Boundaries Commission's Order of 20 March 2003, becomes effective from 18 March 2006, this being the date of the next South Australian State election.

The Tribunal is required to consider the effect of the changes to electoral districts to apply from that date. A summary of these changes is as follows:

- The electoral district of Elizabeth has been renamed to Little Para but is otherwise unchanged.
- Two electoral districts Bright and Mitchell have minor boundary adjustments that do not result in the transfer of any electors.
- Twenty electoral districts are unchanged. These electorates are: Ashford, Bragg, Chaffey, Cheltenham, Croydon, Davenport, Elder, Elizabeth (renamed Little Para), Fisher, Frome, Goyder, Kaurua, MacKillop, Morphett, Mount Gambier, Napier, Playford, Taylor, Unley and West Torrens.
- Comparatively few electors (less than 34 000) have been transferred between electorates (compared with 175 000+ in the 1998 redistribution).

An election has been called to be held on 18 March 2006 and the Determination to which this report applies gives effect to the above changes from that date.

The Determination continues the monetary amounts currently payable for all allowances except for the Country Members Accommodation Allowance, which has been the subject of a recent review as outlined below.

2. Country Members' Accommodation Allowance

Following detailed consideration, the Tribunal in December 2003, decided that it would further review the Country Member's Accommodation Allowance prior to the next election. It also suggested there might be two different accommodation rates determined, one for commercial accommodation and the other for non-commercial accommodation.

The Tribunal envisaged that any revised Country Members' Accommodation Allowance would be applicable immediately following the next election to apply to all newly elected and re-elected country Members of Parliament.

On 30 November 2005, the Tribunal invited further submissions from country Members and indicated that previous submissions on this matter would also be reconsidered. A number of additional submissions were received.

The Tribunal has conducted a detailed review of past decisions on this topic and further considered recent and past submissions, which in the main argued that the current basis of payment for the Country Members' Accommodation Allowance should be continued.

In its report No. 2 of 1994 made in April 1994, the Tribunal stated, inter alia, as follows:

'In addition, the Tribunal is aware that some members have deliberately chosen to acquire a second residence, either by way of house, flat, unit, etc. and it is very difficult to determine the actual expenses in these circumstances.'

As a matter of policy, the Tribunal does not wish to disadvantage such members for the exercise of this choice and has therefore decided to provide an allowance of a flat amount per overnight stay in Adelaide irrespective of the form of accommodation used. Such payment should not exceed the maximum prescribed in the Determination for each 12 month period and should only apply to those members who are eligible to receive the allowance by virtue of the fact that:

- (i) the Member remains in Adelaide overnight; and
 (ii) the Member's usual place of residence is more than 75 km by road from the G.P.O. Adelaide.'

Following further detailed discussion the Tribunal has decided to continue the current basis of determination of the Country Members' Accommodation Allowance particularly having regard to the variety of accommodation arrangements made. It considers a rate for each night with a total of 135 nights in a given financial year to be still appropriate.

Having regard to increased costs since the current rates were determined the Tribunal has increased the nightly rate to $164 for each night up to a maximum of $21 330 for the 12 month period ending 30 June 2006 and $22 140 in each 12 month period commencing on and from 1 July 2006.

3. Date of Operation

The Tribunal has decided that the provisions of this Determination, which supersede those of all preceding Determinations, shall operate from 18 March 2006.

Dated 7 March 2006.
