- 7.6.2 The Subsidiary and a Constituent Council must continue to observe and perform this Charter despite the application or operation of this Clause.
- 7.6.3 This Clause does not prejudice the right of a party:
- (a) to require the continuing observance and performance of this Charter by all parties; or
  - (b) to institute proceedings to enforce payment due under this Charter or to seek injunctive relief to prevent immediate and irreparable harm.

7.6.4 Pending completion of the procedure set out in this Clause, and subject to this Clause, a dispute must not be the subject of legal proceedings between any of the parties in dispute. If legal proceedings are initiated or continued in breach of this provision, a party to the dispute is entitled to apply for and be granted an order of the court adjourning those proceedings pending completion of the procedure set out in this Clause.

Step 1: Notice of dispute: A party to the dispute must promptly notify each other party to the dispute:

7.6.5 the nature of the dispute, giving reasonable details; and

7.6.6 what action (if any) the party giving notice thinks will resolve the dispute;

7.6.7 but a failure to give such notice does not entitle any other party to damages.

Step 2: Meeting of the parties: A party to the dispute who complies with the previous step may at the same or a later time notify each other party to the dispute that the first party requires a meeting within 14 business days after the giving of such notice. 7.6.11 a party in dispute must cooperate in arranging and expediting mediation;

7.6.14 a party in dispute may withdraw from mediation if there is reason to believe the mediator is not acting in confidence, or with good faith or is acting for a purpose other than resolving the dispute;

7.6.15 unless otherwise agreed in writing:

(a) everything that occurs before the mediator is in confidence and in closed session;

(b) discussions (including admissions and concessions) are without prejudice and may not be called into evidence in any subsequent litigation by a party;

(c) documents brought into existence specifically for the purpose of the mediation may not be admitted in evidence in any subsequent legal proceedings by a party;

(d) the parties in dispute must report back to the mediator within 14 business days on actions taken, based on the outcome of the mediation;

7.6.16 a party in dispute need not spend more than one day in mediation for a matter under dispute;

7.6.17 a party in dispute must bear an equal share of the costs and expenses of the mediator and otherwise bears its own costs.

Step 4: Arbitration: Despite whether any previous step was taken, a dispute not resolved within 60 days must be referred to arbitration, as to which:

7.6.18 there must be only one arbitrator and who is a natural person agreed by the parties or, if they cannot agree within 14 business days, an arbitrator nominated by the then Chairperson of The Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators Australia (South Australian Chapter);

7.6.20 the arbitration must take place in an agreed location in Adelaide;

7.6.21 a party must cooperate in arranging and expediting arbitration;

7.6.22 a party must send to the arbitration a senior manager with authority to resolve the dispute;

7.6.23 the parties may provide evidence and given written and verbal submissions to the arbitrator within the time set by the arbitrator;

- 7.6.24 the arbitrator must within reasonable time:

- 7.6.25 subject to this Clause, the arbitration must take place under Rules 5 to 18 (inclusive) of the Rules of The Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators for the Conduct of Commercial Arbitrations and the provisions of the Commercial Arbitration Act 1986 (S.A.) and which Rules are taken to be incorporated by reference into this Clause OR subject to this Clause, the arbitrator must fix the rules of arbitration;

- 2.2 Where an employer provides its return pursuant to section 69 (1) of the Act to the Corporation other than electronically via the Corporation's website, <http://www.workcover.com>, the levy payable by that employer will not be payable in accordance with section 69 (3) of the Act, but instead will be payable in accordance with the following requirements:
- (a) following receipt of the employer's return pursuant to section 69 (1) of the Act, the Corporation will issue the employer with a tax invoice for the amount of levy payable by the employer on aggregate remuneration in the relevant class or classes of industry based on the estimate or estimates set out in the return; and

- 2.3 Notwithstanding Clause 2.2 of this Determination, where, in the opinion of a person holding delegated or sub-delegated power to form such an opinion from the Corporation ('the Delegated Officer(s)'), formed from information provided to or otherwise obtained by the Corporation (including, without limitation, any return provided by the employer pursuant to section 69 (1) of the Act), any employer is likely to be liable to pay an annual levy in relation to the relevant financial year of not more than $2 000 (a 'small employer'), the levy payable by the employer in respect of the relevant financial year will not be payable in accordance with section 69 (3) of the Act, but instead will be payable by 31 July in the financial year in respect of which the levy is payable or such later date as may be specified in a tax invoice.

  - (c) that employer does not make payment in full of the levy payable in respect of a financial year pursuant to section 69 (3) of the Act,
- the levy payable by that employer will not be payable in accordance with section 69 (3) of the Act, but instead will be payable in accordance with the following requirements:
- (d) the levy will be payable by the employer to the Corporation in ten equal instalments on or before 7 September, 7 October, 7 November, 7 December, 7 January, 7 February, 7 March, 7 April, 7 May and 7 June of the financial year in respect of which the levy is payable;
  - (e) the ten equal instalments of the levy will be paid by electronic means to the account of the Corporation;
  - (f) if the employer fails to make an instalment by a date specified in Clause 2.5 (d) of this Determination or in the manner specified in Clause 2.5 (e) of this Determination, a Delegated Officer shall be empowered to issue the employer with a tax invoice for the amount of levy payable by the employer in respect of the relevant financial that remains unpaid at that time; and

- 2.6 In this Determination, the term 'electronic means' means payment by way of direct debit from the employer's bank account, electronic funds transfer to a bank account nominated for the purpose by the Corporation, electronic payment via the Corporation's website, <http://www.workcover.com>, BPAY, credit card (Visa or Mastercard), or any other electronic form of payment nominated by the Corporation for the purpose from time to time and, for the avoidance of doubt, does not include payment by cash, personal cheque, bank cheque or set-off.

- 3.1 In respect of the requirements set out in Clause 2.2 of this Determination, that in the case of employers that provide returns other than electronically via the Corporation's website, the internal systems of the Corporation require it to issue an invoice for payment before the payment of levies can be received by the Corporation and, accordingly, the requirements of section 69 (3) of the Act are not appropriate.
- 3.2 In respect of the requirements set out in Clause 2.3 of this Determination, that in the case of employers likely to pay an annual levy of not more than $2 000, it is reasonable for those employers to make payment of that levy as a single payment.

DEVELOPMENT ACT 1993

Draft City Wide Commercial Zones Development Plan Amendment—Draft for Public Consultation

NOTICE is hereby given that the City of Port Adelaide Enfield has prepared a draft City Wide Commercial Zones Development Plan Amendment (DPA) to amend the Port Adelaide Enfield (City) Development Plan. The proposed amendments include:

- Amalgamation of the existing Local Commercial Zone and District Commercial Zone into the Commercial Zone

The amalgamation of three commercial zones into a single Commercial Zone will promote a consistent approach to commercial development across Council.

- Updating of Commercial Zone policies

New policies are proposed for the Commercial Zone in relation to a number of elements including the provision of landscaping and the form and appearance of buildings.

- Creation of a Mixed Use (Kilburn) Zone on Churchill Road

The introduction of this zone will acknowledge the mix of land-uses that presently exist; identify an area where medium-density residential development is desirable; and may also encourage new development.

- Rezoning of approximately 18.8 hectares of land to the Commercial Zone

It is important that Council has a sufficient supply of commercial land to provide opportunities for investment and employment within the Council area. New commercial zoning is primarily targeted in areas which accommodate existing commercial development.
