THE REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

REPORT NO. 6 OF 2021

Accommodation Expense Reimbursement and Allowance for Country Members of Parliament

INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

- Section 14 of the Remuneration Act 1990 ("the Act") provides that the Remuneration Tribunal ("the Tribunal") has jurisdiction to determine the remuneration, or a specified part of the remuneration, payable in respect of certain offices, if such jurisdiction is conferred upon the Tribunal by any other Act or by the Governor by proclamation.
- Section 3A(2) of the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990 ("the PR Act") confers jurisdiction upon the Tribunal to make a Determination or perform any other function required by the PR Act.
- Section 3A(3) of the PR Act provides that the Tribunal may make a different provision according to the member, the electorate, the House of Parliament or the circumstances to which the Determination is to apply.
- Section 4(2)(a) of the PR Act provides that the Tribunal must, in determining electorate allowances and other remuneration for members of Parliament, have regard not only to their parliamentary duties, but also to:
  - Their duty to be actively involved in community affairs; and
  - Their duty to represent and assist their constituents in dealings with governmental and other public agencies and authorities.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

- Section 10(2) of the Act provides that prior to the making of a Determination, the Tribunal must allow an affected person, or persons of an affected class, a reasonable opportunity to make submissions orally or in writing to the Tribunal.
- Section 10(4) of the Act provides that the Minister responsible for the Act may intervene, personally or by counsel or other representative, in proceedings before the Tribunal for the purpose of introducing evidence, or making submissions, on any question relevant to the public interest.
- On 28 June 2021, the Tribunal wrote to the Members of Parliament, notifying of the Tribunal's intention to conduct a review of its Determinations in relation to Members of Parliament. The Tribunal invited written submissions with a closing date of 16 July 2021.
- On 28 June 2021, the Tribunal wrote to the Honourable Premier of South Australia ("the Premier"), as the Minister responsible for the Act, inviting submissions in the public interest, with a closing date of 16 July 2021.
- In addition, on 28 June 2021, a public notification of the review was placed on the Tribunal's website.

SUBMISSIONS

- A summary of the submissions made to the Tribunal in relation to this review is included below.

Clerk of the House of Assembly

  - The Clerk of the House of Assembly sought clarification in relation to particular definitions within the Tribunal's Determination. Those definitions included references to accommodation costs, Ministerial duties and a written declaration.

The Hon. Nicola Centofanti, MLC

  - The Hon. Nicola Centofanti MLC sought provision for the cost of meals within the Tribunal's Determination of Country Members accommodation allowance.

The Hon. Ann Vanstone QC, Independent Commissioner Against Corruption

  - Commissioner Vanstone wrote to the Tribunal suggesting that the current scheme for the Country Members entitlement could be altered to reduce compliance costs and effort and to facilitate simpler administration and audit requirements.
- The Tribunal acknowledges these submissions and thanks each of the people who have made them.
- No other submissions were received by the Tribunal in relation to the review to which this Report relates.

CONSIDERATION AND CONCLUSION

13. The Tribunal has noted the submissions of the Clerk of the House of Assembly and has provided additional definitions within its Determination. Notably, the Tribunal provided definitions for ministerial duties, declaration requirements and overnight accommodation costs. In terms of the overnight accommodation costs, the Tribunal has recognised that these costs may include costs that have a direct nexus to the provision of overnight accommodation, including booking and transaction fees.
14. The Tribunal has considered the submission made by Ms Centofanti that the cost of meals should be provided for within the Tribunal's Determination. The Tribunal notes that the intent of the Country Members accommodation entitlement is to provide a modest level of assistance to Country Members of Parliament who commute to metropolitan Adelaide for certain official purposes.
15. The Tribunal does not consider that a meal allowance for country members ought to be included in the Determination at the present time. The Tribunal considers that the current entitlements are adequate incentive for Country Members to be present in Adelaide for the official purposes described within the Determination. Those entitlements include a reimbursement of commercial accommodation costs up to a specified amount, or, alternatively, a second residence allowance. However, the Tribunal has noted that some commercial accommodation providers include the provision of a light breakfast in their overnight accommodation service. Where this occurs, it may not be possible to separate out the breakfast component from the accommodation and the Tribunal considers that, in these instances the light breakfast cost component should form part of the accommodation cost.
16. The Tribunal has considered the suggestions put to the Tribunal by Commissioner Vanstone. The Tribunal considers the issues raised warrant substantial attention but notes that quite significant changes to the current arrangements would most likely be required. In the absence of any requests for such substantial changes from members of Parliament, the Tribunal is reluctant to implement major changes without further consultation. Consequently, the Tribunal has decided to make minimal change to the current system at this stage but has resolved to invite submissions on a more substantial change at the next annual review of this entitlement in 2022.
17. In the interim, to clarify accountability and efficiency obligations and remove any confusion, the Tribunal has decided that the current Determination should be updated to clarify that a statutory declaration should be provided to confirm that a second residence is maintained by the Member in Metropolitan Adelaide, including the address of that second residence. This requirement will come into effect on and from 1 January 2022. The requirement for a statutory declaration does not extend to commercial accommodation expense reimbursement where a claim form signed by the member will suffice.
18. The Tribunal has decided to clarify that the primary purpose for overnight metropolitan accommodation should be clarified such that it is for the primary purpose of performing either parliamentary, electoral, community or ministerial duties (but not for the purpose of party political duties). This clarification confirms that ministerial duties form part of the eligibility criteria. A definition for ministerial duties has been included.
19. The Tribunal has decided to apply a modest inflationary adjustment to the amounts of the entitlement for Country Members. Accordingly, the Tribunal has concluded that the amounts of the reimbursement for commercial accommodation and the second residence allowance for Members of Parliament shall be increased by 1.75%.

DATE OF OPERATION

20. The accompanying Determination shall have operative effect on and from 1 October 2021, save and except for clauses 4.2.4, 4.3.1 and 6.3.1 of that Determination.
21. The accompanying Determination supersedes in full the accommodation allowance provisions for Country Members within Determination 9 of 2020.

THE REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL*REPORT NO. 7 OF 20212021 Review of the Common Allowance for Members of the Parliament of South AustraliaINTRODUCTION

1. Section 14 of the Remuneration Act 1990 ("the Act") provides that the Remuneration Tribunal ("the Tribunal") has jurisdiction to determine the remuneration, or a specified part of the remuneration, payable in respect of certain offices, if such jurisdiction is conferred upon the Tribunal by any other Act or by the Governor by proclamation.
2. Section 3A(2) of the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990 ("the PR Act") confers jurisdiction on the Tribunal to make a Determination or perform any other function required by the PR Act.
3. Section 4AA(3) of the PR Act, provides that the Tribunal must review the common allowance once per year, and if the Tribunal considers it appropriate to do so, the Tribunal may determine an increase to the amount of the Common Allowance.
4. Section 4AA(4) provides that the aggregated amount of the two components of remuneration that comprise the Common Allowance must not exceed $42,000.

BACKGROUND

5. The Common Allowance was established by the Parliamentary Remuneration (Determination of Remuneration) Amendment Act 2015 ("the Amending Act") which amended the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990 ("the PR Act").
6. The Common Allowance is comprised of two monetary amounts. The first amount is provided as compensation for the loss of the annual travel allowance, metrocard special pass and subsidised or free interstate rail travel. The second amount is provided as compensation for the loss of payments for service as ordinary members of parliamentary committees.
7. The Tribunal has a statutory responsibility under the PR Act to review the amounts of the two components of Common Allowance on an annual basis.
8. The amount of the Common Allowance was last reviewed by the Tribunal in 2020. On that occasion, the Tribunal provided no increase in the amount of the Common Allowance.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

9. Section 10(2) of the Act provides that prior to the making of a Determination, the Tribunal must allow an affected person, or persons of an affected class, a reasonable opportunity to make submissions orally or in writing to the Tribunal.
10. Section 10(4) of the Act provides that the Minister responsible for the Act may intervene, personally or by counsel or other representative, in proceedings before the Tribunal for the purpose of introducing evidence, or making submissions, on any question relevant to the public interest.
11. On 28 June 2021, the Tribunal wrote to the Members of Parliament, notifying of the Tribunal's intention to conduct a review of its Determinations in relation to Members of Parliament. The Tribunal invited written submissions with a closing date of 16 July 2021.
12. On 28 June 2021, the Tribunal wrote to the Honourable Premier of South Australia ("the Premier"), as the Minister responsible for the Act, inviting submissions in the public interest, with a closing date of 16 July 2021.
13. In addition, on 28 June 2021, a public notification of the review was placed on the Tribunal's website.

SUBMISSIONS

14. A submission was received by Ms Frances Bedford, MP who put to the Tribunal the view that it is not essential or necessary for her to receive an increase in the Common Allowance.
15. No other submissions were received by the Tribunal in relation to the review to which this Report relates.

LEGISLATIVE CONSIDERATIONS

16. The Common Allowance is an allowance, established in 2015 by amending legislation<sup>1</sup>, to compensate Members of Parliament for the loss of certain specified entitlements which were abolished at that time.

Note:

17. Relevantly, the PR Act, as amended in 2015, provides that the Common Allowance now forms part of the basic salary of a Member of Parliament. That section is set out as follows:

"4AB—Basic salary

The basic salary payable to a member of Parliament is salary at a rate equal to the rate from time to time of the Commonwealth basic salary less $42 000 plus the common allowance for the relevant year."

18. The Tribunal's role and function in determining the amount of the Common Allowance under the PR Act is limited and specific. The Tribunal is unable to deal with the whole or all aspects of the Common Allowance. The statutory responsibility assigned to the Tribunal is confined to the making of an independent determination of the amount of the Common Allowance, on an annual basis, up to a maximum amount of $42,000 per annum. The PR Act does not allow the Tribunal to decrease the amount of the Common Allowance. In determining the amount of the Common Allowance, the Tribunal may inform itself in any manner that it thinks fit.
19. At the time this review, the full value of the various components that make up the Common Allowance is $31,376 per annum, which is comprised of:
  - 19.1. $17,728 for the amount of remuneration as reasonable compensation for the abolition of: annual travel allowance, metrocard special pass and subsidised or free interstate rail travel; and
  - 19.2. $13,648 for the amount of remuneration payable to all Members of Parliament for service as ordinary members on parliamentary committees.

ECONOMIC DATAABS Consumer Price Index

20. The latest Consumer Price Index ("CPI") data for the year ending June 2021 reflects 2.8% in the all groups Adelaide index.

ABS Wage Price Index

21. The latest Wage Price Index ("WPI") data the year ending March 2021 reflects an increase of 1.7% for the Public Sector in South Australia.

Reserve Bank of Australia—Statement on Monetary Policy—Economic Outlook—August 2021:

22. RBA inflation forecasts for the year ending:

- December 2021: 2.5%
- June 2022: 1.5%
- December 2022: 1.75%
- June 2023: 2%
- December 2023: 2.25%

Reserve Bank of Australia, Monetary Policy Decision, 3 August 2021

23. "The CPI inflation rate spiked to 3.8 per cent for the year to the June quarter, largely reflecting the unwinding of some earlier COVID-19-related price declines. In underlying terms, inflation remains low, at around 1¾ per cent.

Looking forward, a pick-up in both wages growth and underlying inflation is expected, but this pick-up is likely to be only gradual. In the Bank's central scenario, it takes some years for the stronger economy to feed through into wage and price increases that are consistent with the inflation target. In underlying terms, inflation is expected to be 1¾ per cent over 2022 and 2¼ per cent over 2023. One source of uncertainty is the behaviour of wages and prices at the low levels of forecast unemployment, including because it is some decades since Australia has sustained an unemployment rate around 4 per cent."

CONSIDERATION AND CONCLUSION

24. The Tribunal notes the submission received from Ms Frances Bedford, MP that the Common Allowance not be increased on this occasion. The Tribunal is conscious that, in 2020, the Common Allowance was not increased by the Tribunal due to the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Tribunal acknowledges that many pandemic related challenges remain for the State, but is of the view that a modest increase to the level of the Common Allowance in keeping with inflation is warranted on this occasion.
25. The Tribunal has reviewed the previous framework of considerations used to determine the Common Allowance in the making of Determination 5 of 2019 and is of the view that the disruption brought about by the COVID-19 pandemic has changed the use case for that methodology. For example, specific CPI indices used within Determination 5 of 2019 have been severely distorted due to the effects of the pandemic, and certain transportation costs, such as interstate rail, have been restructured to demand based pricing models. The Tribunal will therefore adopt a much more straightforward approach this year by applying an inflationary adjustment.

26. The Tribunal notes the headline inflation figure for Adelaide of 2.8% as quoted by the Australian Bureau of Statistics includes items which have been highly volatile due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In that respect, the Tribunal took the view that the underlying inflation figure of 1.75%, as stated by the Governor of the Reserve Bank of Australia, was a more suitable measure of inflation for present purposes, as underlying inflation excludes short term pandemic related volatility.
27. Accordingly, the Tribunal has concluded that the amount of the Common Allowance shall be increased by 1.75%.

OPERATIVE DATE

28. The accompanying Determination shall have operative effect on and from 1 October 2021.

2. Section 3A(2) of the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990 ("the PR Act") confers jurisdiction on the Remuneration Tribunal to make a determination or perform any other function required by the PR Act.
3. Section 4(1)(c) of the PR Act provides that electorate allowances form part of the remuneration of members of Parliament.
4. Section 4(2)(a) of the PR Act provides that the Tribunal must, in determining electorate allowances and other remuneration for members of Parliament, have regard not only to their parliamentary duties, but also to:
  - 4.1. Their duty to be actively involved in community affairs; and
  - 4.2. Their duty to represent and assist their constituents in dealings with governmental and other public agencies and authorities.
5. In 2020, the Tribunal conducted its annual review of electorate allowances for members of Parliament, resulting in no increase being applied to the levels of those allowances.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

6. Section 10(2) of the Act provides that prior to the making of a Determination, the Tribunal must allow an affected person, or persons of an affected class, a reasonable opportunity to make submissions orally or in writing to the Tribunal.
7. Section 10(4) of the Act provides that the Minister responsible for the Act may intervene, personally or by counsel or other representative, in proceedings before the Tribunal for the purpose of introducing evidence, or making submissions, on any question relevant to the public interest.
8. On 28 June 2021, the Tribunal wrote to the Members of Parliament, notifying of the Tribunal's intention to conduct a review of its Determinations in relation to Members of Parliament. The Tribunal invited written submissions with a closing date of 16 July 2021.
9. On 28 June 2021, the Tribunal wrote to the Honourable Premier of South Australia ("the Premier"), as the Minister responsible for the Act, inviting submissions in the public interest, with a closing date of 16 July 2021.
10. In addition, on 28 June 2021, a public notification of the review was placed on the Tribunal's website.

SUBMISSIONS

11. A submission was received by Ms Frances Bedford, MP who put to the Tribunal the view that whilst it would be good to have access to additional funds to spend in the electorate, it is possible to maintain supports in the electorate on the current amount of Electorate Allowance provided.
12. No other submissions were received by the Tribunal in relation to the review to which this Report relates.

ECONOMIC DATAABS Consumer Price Index*

13. The latest Consumer Price Index ("CPI") data for the year ending June 2021 reflects 2.8% in the all groups Adelaide index.

ABS Wage Price Index

14. The latest Wage Price Index ("WPI") data the year ending March 2021 reflects an increase of 1.7% for the Public Sector in South Australia.

Reserve Bank of Australia—Statement on Monetary Policy—Economic Outlook—August 2021:

15. RBA inflation forecasts for the year ending:

- December 2021: 2.5%
- June 2022: 1.5%
- December 2022: 1.75%
- June 2023: 2%
- December 2023: 2.25%

Reserve Bank of Australia, Monetary Policy Decision, 3 August 2021

16. "The CPI inflation rate spiked to 3.8 per cent for the year to the June quarter, largely reflecting the unwinding of some earlier COVID-19-related price declines. In underlying terms, inflation remains low, at around 1¾ per cent.

Looking forward, a pick-up in both wages growth and underlying inflation is expected, but this pick-up is likely to be only gradual. In the Bank's central scenario, it takes some years for the stronger economy to feed through into wage and price increases that are consistent with the inflation target. In underlying terms, inflation is expected to be 1¾ per cent over 2022 and 2¼ per cent over 2023. One source of uncertainty is the behaviour of wages and prices at the low levels of forecast unemployment, including because it is some decades since Australia has sustained an unemployment rate around 4 per cent."

CONCLUSION

17. The Tribunal has had due regard to the necessary statutory considerations under section 4(2)(a) of the PR Act. Those considerations include the nature of parliamentary duties, the duty for Members of Parliament to be actively involved in community affairs, and the duty for Members of Parliament to represent and assist their constituents in dealings with governmental and other public agencies and authorities.
18. The Tribunal notes the submission received from Ms Frances Bedford, MP that the Electorate Allowance not be increased on this occasion. The Tribunal is conscious that, in 2020, the levels of Electorate Allowances for Members of Parliament were not increased by the Tribunal due to the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Tribunal acknowledges that many pandemic related challenges remain for the State, but is of the view that a modest increase to the level of Electorate Allowances in keeping with inflation is warranted on this occasion.
19. The Tribunal notes the headline inflation figure for Adelaide of 2.8% as quoted by the Australian Bureau of Statistics includes items which have been highly volatile due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In that respect, the Tribunal took the view that the underlying inflation figure of 1.75%, as stated by the Governor of the Reserve Bank of Australia, was a more suitable measure of inflation for present purposes, as underlying inflation excludes short term pandemic related volatility.
20. Accordingly, the Tribunal has concluded that the amounts of the Electorate Allowances provided to Members of Parliament shall be increased by 1.75%.

DATE OF OPERATION

21. The accompanying Determination will have operative effect on and from 1 October 2021 and will supersede in full the previous Determination in relation to Electorate Allowances for Members of Parliament.
